SUBJECT: Proposed Far East Trip

John:

I wanted to bring you in on my planning for a September 1983 swing through the Far East before the cable traffic begins. As you can see on the attached itinerary, it is going to be a very full schedule. I would appreciate your comments, at this point especially, on things that might be added or that ought to be passed by for some reason.

The trip has two themes: national intelligence support to military commanders (a continuation of the theme we have pursued chiefly in Europe to date), and general familiarization for myself with the full range of intelligence activities in east Asia.

Let me add several comments:
